Day 3 Welcome to Sydney, Australia

On arrival into Sydney you will need to clear customs and make your way through the main arrivals hall from where you where you can make your own way to your hotel.

Sydney – Australia's premier city is the oldest settlement in Australia, the economic powerhouse of the nation and the country's capital in everything but name. Built on the shores of the stunning Port Jackson, you would have to die and go to heaven before you see a more spectacular setting for a city. It's a vital, self-regarding metropolis, exuding both a devil-may-care urbanity and a slavish obsession with global fads. The Sydney area was the ancestral home of the Daruk tribe, whose territory extended from Botany Bay to Pittwater.

There are some 2000 Aboriginal rock engraving sites in the Sydney area, and many of Sydney's suburbs have Aboriginal names. The city of Sydney began life as a penal colony in 1788 and for the next 60 years received the unwanted, persecuted and criminal elements of British society. Despite its brutal beginnings, the city's mixture of pragmatic egalitarianism and plain indifference has transformed it into a thriving multicultural society. Sydney now attracts the majority of Australia's immigrants and the city's predominantly Anglo-Irish heritage has been revitalized by large influxes of Italian, Lebanese, Turkish, Greek, Chinese and Vietnamese.

Days 4-6 At leisure, Sydney

At your leisure to explore Sydney. Most of the major attractions of the city are within easy walking distance of your accommodation – Sydney Opera House, Darling Harbour, Centrepont Tower, Circular Quay, The Rocks etc.

Don't let Brisbane's easy-going sub-tropical ambience fool you. There is plenty to do; visit islands, savor mouth-watering cuisine and fine local wines or soak up the arts or sporting lifestyle. The beer gardens and verandas alone say it all – you can't beat Brisbane's lifestyle. It's warm most of the year and the locals are friendly. Despite the unhurried tempo, there is always something to do.

Days 8-10 At leisure, Brisbane

This afternoon is yours to explore Brisbane on your own. There's a lot to see and do within an easy walking distance from your downtown hotel. Brisbane is a vibrant, bustling, modern city of almost 2 million people. Downtown offers a huge choice of shopping experiences, restaurants, museums, and parklands.

Take a walk or ferry over to the Southside and visit the wonderful Southbank Parklands, the redeveloped site of the 1988 World Fair. While on the Southside, visit the Queensland Museum of natural history, and the Queensland Art Gallery. Visit Brisbane's wonderful Botanical Gardens at the eastern end of George Street. There, you can rent bikes or rollerblades. On weekends, the Riverside and Southbank Markets are a "must see."
